

OFFICE OF COUNCIL SERVICES

Diane E. Hosaka, Director

POWERS, DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS

The 1973 Revised Charter of the City and County of Honolulu ("RCH") authorized the council to establish the office of council services (OCS) to assist it in the exercise of its legislative power (Sec. 3-107.7 RCH). The 1971-72 Charter Commission cited this as one of the most important changes affecting the legislative branch of city government. In this regard, OCS was viewed as "a necessary adjunct to and is supportive of the policy-formulation or legislative role of the city council" and "a tool for decision making — to assist it in analyzing the city's policies and financial programs for their effectiveness and adequacy and in identifying alternative programs and policies and major problems which endanger the public interest and welfare."

OCS was created on March 19, 1973 by enactment of Ordinance 4116 (Article 3, Chapter 4, ROH). It is charged with providing comprehensive research and reference services for the council, conducting research for the enactment or consideration of legislation, and serving in an advisory or consultative capacity to the council and its committees.

The voters in the general election of November 7, 1978 further expanded the charter functions of OCS "to represent it [the council] in court litigation where the dispute is with the Executive Branch and where the corporation counsel may represent the Mayor or officers of the Executive Branch."

In 1993, the council adopted Ordinance 93-26 to designate OCS as the revisor of ordinances.

SERVICES PERFORMED

With a staff of 20 — a director, an assistant director, five attorneys, eight analysts, one paralegal, and four support staff — OCS services performed the following services:

- Conducted independent research necessary for the enactment of legislation upon the request of the council;
- Provided assistance to the council's standing committees by conducting background research, gathering pertinent data, and serving as resource persons to the committees;
- Analyzed executive branch proposals, programs, bills, and reports at the request of the council;
- Provided legal research and advice at the request of the council;
- Prepared bills and resolutions requested by councilmembers;
- Analyzed, prepared amendments for, and monitored the execution of the city's operating and capital budgets;
- Provided information to individual councilmembers by letter, memorandum, personal or telephone conferences, or electronic communication;
- Provided liaison service to the council regarding access to the city's geographic information system (GIS);
- Served as revisor of ordinances and supervised the revision, codification, and printing of the revised ordinances of Honolulu and maintained the city's computerized data bases for the revised ordinances and city policy resolutions;
- Assisted the council in fulfilling its responsibilities as a member of the Hawaii State Association of Counties;
- Assisted the councilmembers when they functioned as trustees of Kapiolani Park; and
- Maintained on-line communication with other municipalities through "CounciLink" as a means of sharing information relevant to cities and counties across the United States.

MAJOR ACTIVITIES FOR FY 2005-06

Research Activities

As the research arm of the council, OCS prepared approximately 952 written responses to requests for service in fiscal year 2005-06. These responses included 251 bills, 474 resolutions, and 228 letters, legal memoranda, and statistical and research reports. OCS also provided research and staff assistance to the council's standing committees and legal staff services for the executive sessions of the committee on executive matters and committee of the whole. In these executive sessions, councilmembers considered matters permitted by chapter 92, HRS, to be discussed in meetings closed to the public and discussed claims against the city where the premature disclosure of information would adversely affect the interests of the city and the public.

OCS continued to volunteer as a budget reviewer for the National Government Finance Officers Association's (GFOA) distinguished budget presentation awards program. The reviews are based on how well an applicant local government's annual budget documents meets GFOA criteria relating to the budget as a policy document, financial plan, operations guide, and communications device. During fiscal year 2005-06, two analysts served as GFOA budget reviewers. The budget reviewed in the fiscal year included those of the following jurisdictions and entities:

City of Glendale, Arizona

City of Phoenix, Arizona

City of Anaheim, California

City of Louisville, Ohio

City of Alexandria, Virginia

City of Richmond, Virginia
